

ALIZ BARBOSA

PRODUCT DESIGNER / UX UI DESIGNER

My years in SaaS and technology staffing gave me excellent insight into the ins-and-outs of software and technology. This is what actually inspired me to make the slight move into Design UX UI.

I enjoyed the daily contact with clients and user, listening them about features and ideating how to improve the already existing, all this gave me the key of my future, become UX UI Designer. In project management we have the responsibility of guiding our clients in the construction of them projects, so the phases of research, ideation, empathizing are super important to me for making a meaningful experiences.
